CSD News Release

CSD LAUDS OUTSTANDING WORKERS FOR FIRST QUARTER OF 2001

May 31, 2001

The Consumer Services Department (CSD) earlier this month recognized code enforcement officer, Juliette Fulton, as its Employee of the Quarter, awarding her a plaque and eight hours of administrative leave.

Fulton, who joined the County in August 1998, and has been at CSD since July 1999, was recognized for her work as Special Operations Coordinator in the Passenger Transportation Regulatory Division (PTRD).

At the awards ceremony several other workers were recognized for outstanding service in different areas of the department's operations, and the recent promotion of Zuzel Vinent and Alvaro Rodriguez was announced.

The department also used the occasion to recognize workers who had received commendations from members of the public. These were Ana Baluja, Steve Bobes, Alfredo Diaz, Scott Dunn, Mario Goderich, Omar Gordon, Jorge Herrera, Sara Lampert, Michael Mandel, David Mattison, John McLaughlin, Teresa Olczyk, Robert Pedraza, Don Pybas, Cherrie Tillman, and Betty Rivera.

Deputy Director, Cathy Peel, enforcement officer, Robert Weiser, and office support specialist, Bridgette Newsome received awards for 20, 15 and five years service respectively to the county.

The department also said farewell to former PTRD Director Steve Oxenhandler and secretary, Elizabeth Cruz. Oxenhandler has left to continue his legal studies while Cruz has accepted a more senior position at the Water and Sewer Department.
